Master List

of 100 Finest Varieties of Iris

One of Each Variety for $30⁰⁰
Former Value $1,809⁵⁰

In my price list sent out earlier in the year I made a statement that has attracted a great deal of notice. It was to the effect that many varieties of Iris that created a sensation when first introduced, and which were sold at $25.00 and $50.00 each, could now be found in my latest price list at 25c and 50c each. So many requests for a list of such varieties have been received, that I decided to prepare and mail this list for the benefit of those who may be interested. Varieties that have sold at even $5.00 and over are of course all fine Irises. They are just as handsome now as when they were sold at the higher price. Therefore, I am including in this list of 100 varieties, those that have sold at $5.00 or over, and I am giving the former price as well as the present price for comparison. There has never before been an opportunity to procure such magnificent varieties at such low prices. There is no better time than right now, with this list before you, to add to your collection.

Superb Single Peony Collection

Beautiful for Cutting and Display

The single Peonies always attract a great deal of attention. The flowers are very large, borne singly, or in clusters, in great profusion. There is usually a single row of petals with a center of golden stamens that is most pleasing. For landscape effect or for specimen clumps they cannot be equalled. They stand heat and rain and have a habit of closing in the cool of the evening, to open again the next day. These lovely single Peonies are quite rare. This collection will consist of a magnificent white, a velvety deep garnet red, and a lovely shell-pink.

All Three for $2.00

Japanese Peony Collection

Semi-Double, Extremely Handsome

This class of little known Peonies is still very rare. They are somewhat like the singles, but more developed, the centre stamens of the singles having developed in the Japanese types into narrow petaloids with traces of the yellow of the stamens showing in these petaloids, which are surrounded by one or more rows of guard petals. They are extremely handsome.

Three rare Japanese Peonies . . . red, white and pink . . . for $2.50

HEMEROCALLIS

(or Daylily)

These very showy garden flowers are among the easiest of culture, and most satisfactory of all perennials. They produce myriads of lilylike blossoms in various shades of yellow, ranging from a soft creamy yellow to the deepest orange. Some of them are shoulder high and others are low enough for use in the rock garden. Some of them flower during May in the latitude of New York; others flower during June, and still others through July and into August. These new hybrids are a great improvement over the older types, and much easier to grow than ordinary lilies.

Some of the newer ones are listed here for the first time under number. All are extremely handsome and many are very fragrant. Prices are for extra strong flowering size plants.

Beautiful Oriental Poppies

For several years I have been selling these magnificent Oriental Poppies, in pots, only to visitors to my exhibition gardens, where they have attracted a great deal of attention. Now I am offering strong, field-grown roots for the first time at greatly reduced prices.

OLYMPIA—This is one of the most exquisite of all Poppies. The color is salmon rose. It is two weeks earlier than any of the other Oriental Poppies, and is FULLY DOUBLE. No collection is complete without OLYMPIA. 50c each.

WUERTEMBERGIA—This is the world's finest and largest brilliant scarlet Poppy. Just a few years ago it sold for $25.00. The flowers are of immense size, sometimes as large as a dinner plate. The petals are like burnished satin. 50c each.

MRS. PERRY—The most popular of all the soft pink Poppies. A lovely color and an exquisite variety. 50c each.

PERRY'S WHITE—A fine white, of satiny texture, with a crimson-maroon spot at the base of each petal. 50c each.

FLANDERS—The famous flame red. Gigantic flowers growing on tall, erect flowering stalks. 50c each.

CERISE BEAUTY—A lovely deep cerise with crimson centre; creped petals. 50c each.

The six varieties listed in this Collection cover the principal color range found in Oriental Poppies. Each is the best of its class. There are no two alike.

Six World's Best Poppies, one of each, $2.50. Three of each, Total 18 plants, $6.75

Six of each, Total 36 plants, $12.00
